Fine and Performing Arts Scholarship Application

Rules and General Information

The scholarship applicant must be:

- a current student in homeschool or one of the School Districts of Anderson or Houston County,
- a resident of Anderson or Houston County,
- anticipating graduation in the Spring of the current school year,
- planning to enroll in the college of their choice any semester of the following school year only.
- Applicants should have an interest in music, Drama, or the fine arts, but do not have to major in the fine arts to receive the scholarship.
- Applicants who have volunteered and/or performed during their high school years in PCT productions are also eligible to receive the scholarship.

PLEASE NOTE: Students who do not meet the first two (2) criteria but have volunteered or participated in PCT productions may also apply.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

All applicants must fill out the application form. The application form must be accompanied with a letter of recommendation from either a current teacher or school counselor in order to be considered.

Funding

The Board of Directors of Palestine Community Theatre, Inc., or a committee selected by the Board, will determine and announce the current year's recipients during their March meeting. The announcement will:

- Announce the number of scholarships to be awarded,
- The amount of each scholarship,
- The names of each recipient, the high school they currently attend, and chosen university or college.
- Once the chosen recipient(s) have been notified and have registered at their chosen university or college, it is the recipient's responsibility to notify PCT of:
 -  The contact and address of the person who should receive the scholarship monies.
 -  The recipient's student ID #.

NOTE: It is the recipient's responsibility to notify PCT when their financial account is active at their university or college.

Deadline

ALL applications MUST be postmarked or received by email NO LATER than February 28. Applications received after this date will not be considered.
